

IIT BUTIBORI COLLEGE

Admissions Handbook

Dear student,

This Student Handbook is intended to provide IIT Butibori BTech Degree students with the information and policies they should be aware of which may help them make the most of the opportunities offered in this programme. It also gives you formal notification and explanation of the programme's regulations, policies and procedures.

It is essential, and your responsibility, to read it and familiarize yourself with the content. It should be kept handy and referred to during your time with us.

This handbook may be revised time and again. While this student handbook was prepared on the basis of the best information available at the time of publication, all information, including policies and procedures are subject to change without notice or obligation.

We hope that your time as a student in this programme is successful and enjoyable.

Thank you.
